

Travel and Expense Policy

Policy ID: FIN-008 | Effective: July 2026 | Owner: Finance

Portfolio-use notice: This is a fictional enterprise policy created solely for educational, testing, and portfolio demonstration purposes. It does not represent the practices of a real organization.

1. Purpose

This policy establishes approval, booking, documentation, and reimbursement requirements for business travel and employee expenses.

2. Pre-Approval

Overnight travel requires manager approval before booking. International travel also requires approval from the relevant vice president and Corporate Security.

3. Standard Reimbursement Limits

Expense Category	Standard Limit	Documentation
Airfare	Economy class; lowest reasonable fare	Receipt required
Hotel	Up to $225 per night before taxes	Itemized receipt required
Meals	Up to $75 per day	Itemized receipts for expenses over $25
Ground transport	Reasonable business cost	Receipt required over $25
Mileage	Current IRS standard mileage rate	Mileage log required

4. Booking Rules

- Employees should use the approved travel portal whenever available.
- Flights should generally be booked at least 14 days in advance.
- Business-class airfare is not reimbursable unless required as a documented accommodation or approved by the Chief Financial Officer.

5. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

- Personal entertainment, minibar charges, traffic fines, childcare, and companion travel.
- Alcohol, unless approved as part of a documented client event.
- Upgrades, premium clubs, or luxury services selected for personal convenience.

6. Submission Deadline

Expense reports must be submitted within 30 calendar days after the expense is incurred. Reports submitted after 60 days require written Finance approval and may be denied.

7. Corporate Cards

Corporate cards may be used only for authorized business expenses. Employees must reconcile card transactions within 10 business days of the monthly statement date.
